The Acceptance Speeches

Academy Award acceptance speeches can be short, like Patty Duke's two word speech after receiving the Best Supporting Actress award in 1962, or long, like Greer Garson's 6 minute Best Actress speech in 1942. But regardless of how long they last, acceptance speeches have the ability to deliver powerful and inspirational sentiments from the Hollywood Elite.

The aptly named Oscar DeLaporte has one a big award and decided to source his acceptance speech from a previous Academy Award Winner but his cue cards have gotten a bit messed up. Can you help him figure out his line before they start the music to get him off the stage?

Drop the letters from the top row down into the spaces below to create the famous quote, then figure out who said it and put their name at the end of DeLaporteBrainbuster.com/ to continue!

P	O	S	D	I	D	L	H	A	T	D	A	I	V	P	O	P	D	R	T	O
T	H	O	S	E	D	O	E	'	R	S	G	I	R	F	L	I	Y	'	U	A
Y	O	U	R	M	A	W	T	E	M	F	A	A	E	,	A	A	T	O	E	T	M
■			■							■				■			■				■
				■							■				■					■	■
									■					■				■			■
					■				■					■		■
■				■						■					■			■	■	■	■